HALE CENTER HIGH SCHOOL

1974 Owl
Hale Center High School
Hale Center, Texas

Dedication

Jon Raine Tate

Superintendent of Schools

The 1974 Owl Yearbook is dedicated and presented to Jon R. Tate. His cooperation with and understanding of the student body has made his three years of leadership at Hale Center enjoyable for all.

Mr. Tate's association with the school has improved not only the school system but also the entire community. His activities in church and civic organizations have made him a well-respected person. The school system and entire community of Hale Center will greatly regret losing him.

Everybody's laughing . . .

Who said school was miserable this year? Everybody's laughing!!! I see the evidence in a smiling face of concentration before a critical basketball game . . . a hearty chuckle during a class meeting . . . a plea of innocence . . . an embarrassed giggle after a slight mix-up at an FHA meeting . . . a ballerina dancing merrily down the hall . . .

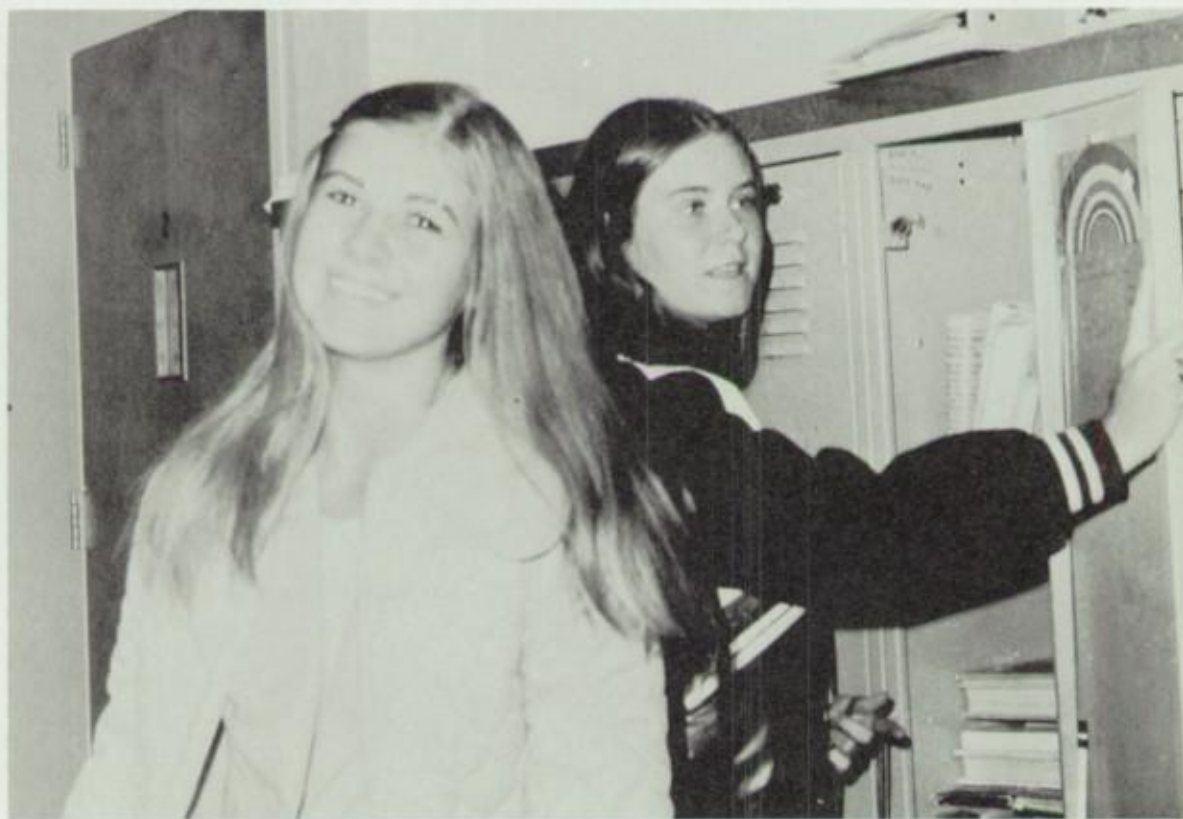

Everybody's laughing.

Everybody's laughing . . .

These smiling faces brighten up our school and make it an enjoyable place to be . . . I see a tired smile even after a long day at the fair . . . a first year Home ec girl learning proper etiquette for future proms . . . a needed smile when it was discovered that there was enough money to go to Corpus . . . two stars relaxing before the curtain goes up . . . I see a smile on a face of a star being born . . . a sarcastic grin . . . a just plain happy feeling and a faraway look that marks the end of a long day . . .

"Owl" Staff Cooks Up Yearbook

The 1974 Yearbook Staff devoted many hours of work to "stir up" this year's annual. Sponsored by Jerry Coombes, this year's staff wishes to express their thanks to the faculty and student body for their patience and cooperation.

Graduation Day

Graduation Day to some is a sad realization. To others is a glorious and exciting day. Tears of joy are shed from those who are eager to go out into an adult world of responsibilities. Tears of sadness are in the eyes of those who are most hesitant about leaving the secure and happy days of high school. Graduation days will go on, tears will be shed, and students will continue to grow into the leaders of our society.

ATHLETICS

Fighting Owl Stars of 1973-74

The recipients of this year's Fighting Heart Awards are Tim Massey and Terri Turner. Tim is a three year letterman in football and basketball and a four year letterman in track. Terri has played varsity basketball for three years and been on the track team for four years.

Tim and Terri have both posted accomplishments in athletics during their four years in high school. Tim was named All-District in football two years, All-District and All-South Plains in basketball two years, and qualified for the Regional Track Meet in four events two years.

Terri qualified for the Regional Track Meet her freshman year and was selected on the All-District basketball team her Senior year. She was also chosen to the All-Tournament Team at the Whiteface Basketball Tourney and was chosen for the Golden Spread All-Star Team which is selected from girls all over the state.

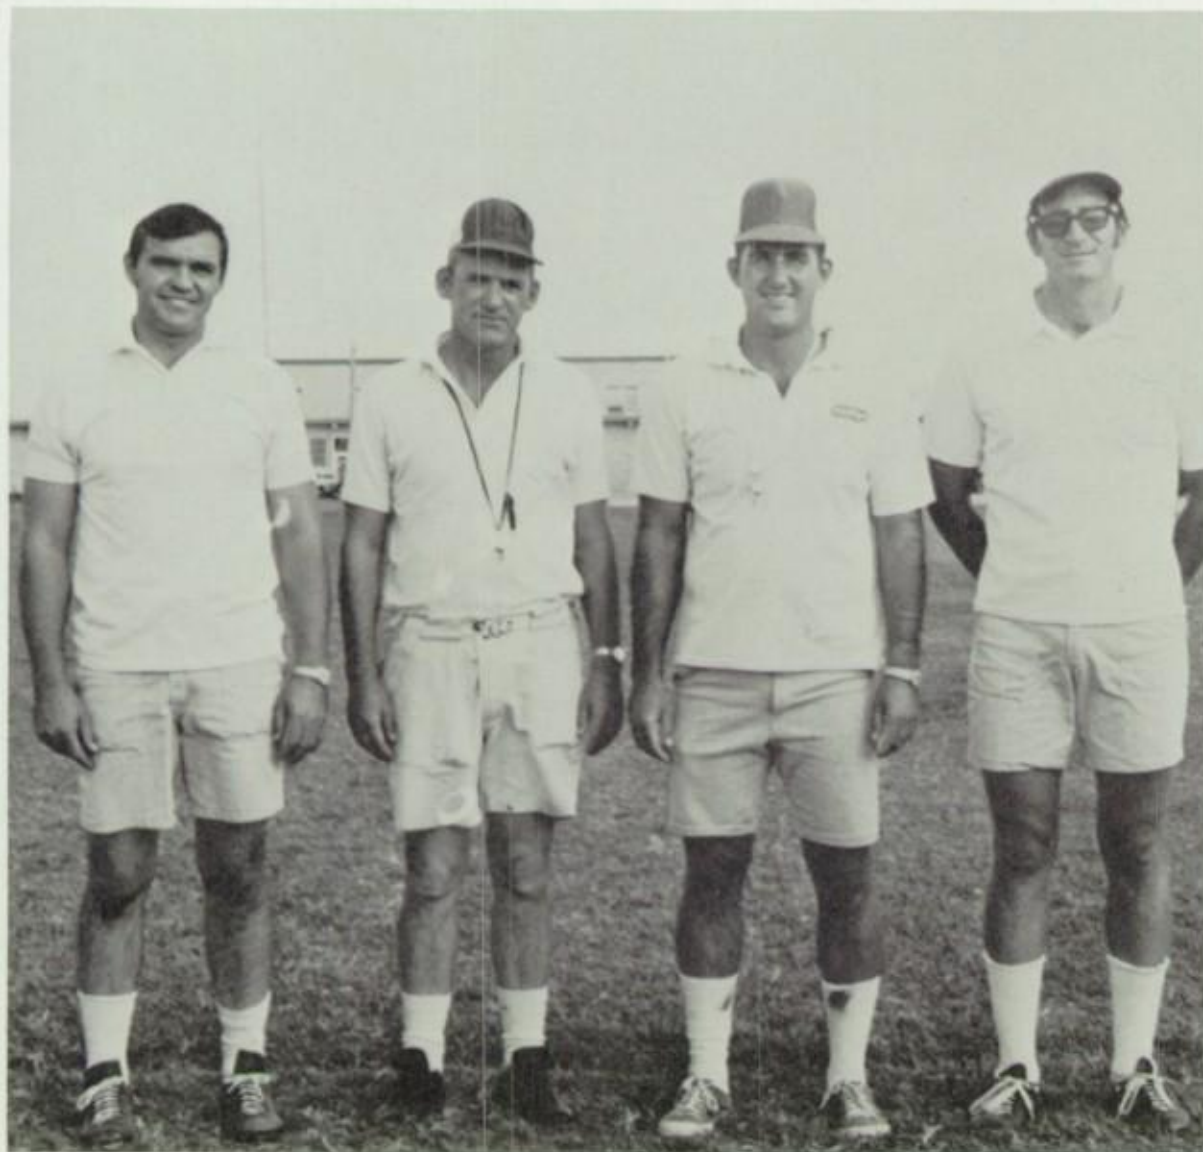

Tim and Terri received their awards at the Annual Athletic Banquet sponsored by the Owl Booster Club.

TIM MASSEY - Sr. Forward, Captain - All-Dist. 3, Hon. Men. 4, Hon. Men. All-South Plains 3, Second Team 4.

ARDEN DAVIS - Sr. Post-Captain-Hon. Men. All-Dist. 3, All-Dist. 4, Hon. Men All-South Plains 4.

MILES VASEK - Sr. Guard, Captain-Hon. Men. All-Dist. 3, 4, Hon. Men All-South Plains 4.

Tim Massey, Arden Davis and Miles Vasek relax after a brisk workout. These three players represented Hale Center on the All-District and All-South Plains "Dream Teams." All-District is chosen every year at the end of the season by the coaches of our district. All-South Plains is chosen by area sportswriters after the season is over. With the high quality of teams and players in the area, it is an honor to be chosen to either elite team, and even more of an honor to be picked on both of them, as these three have been. They were also selected as team captains by their teammates after the close of the season. Tim was selected unanimously, Arden and Miles were selected as co-captains.

School Board Governs H.C. System

The 1973-74 School Board faced a busy year with high hopes and ambitions for the Hale Center School system. Serving on the board this year was Davis Cannon, T.E. Alexander, Bobby Johnson, Walta Thomas, C. P. Smith, and Edward Weil.

The Hale Center Board members are eager to get to work and anxious to profit their school.

Many problems and proposals are discussed at each meeting of the School Board.

Mr. Tate is an important member at all board meetings.

JON R. TATE
Supt. of Schools

Superintendent Has Strenuous Occupation

Billie Thorpe, Sec. to the Supt.

The superintendent has one of the most trying jobs in the school. Mr. Tate has not only been a superintendent, but also served as a public relations man. Along with his secretary, Mrs. Thorpe, and his business manager, Mr. Atwood, the school would not function.

Mr. Tate is always eager to discuss problems or simply visit with anyone, any time.

Mrs. Thorpe seems to truly enjoy her duties as secretary.

Principals Solve Problems of School Operation

Mr. Tyer seems to warn photographers of his temper.

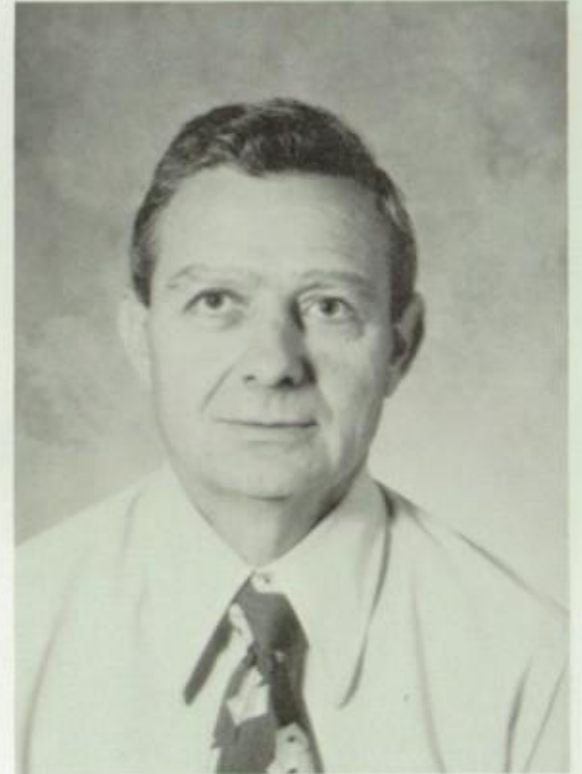

Mrs. Townsen handles many student services.

The look of concern is evident on Mr. Hill's face as he chats with a student.

Wayne Hill, High School

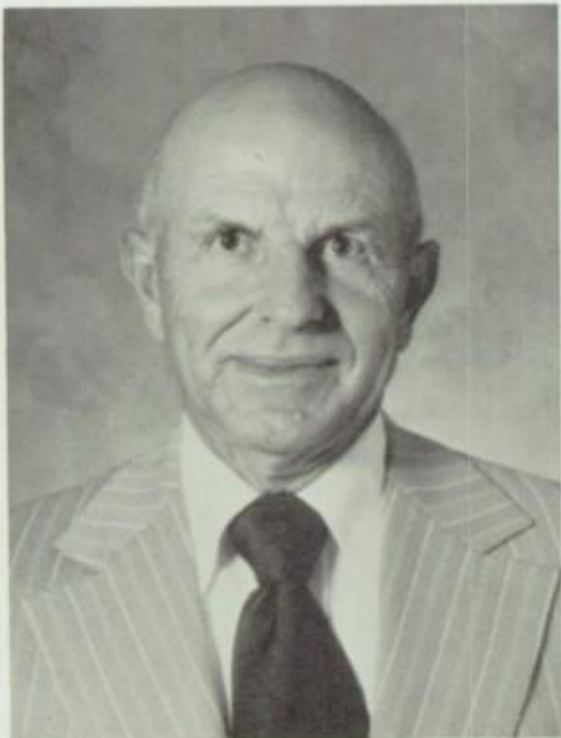

Gene Tyer, Jr. High

Lillian Townsen, High School Secretary

Haden Moore, North Elementary

T. C. Clark, Akin Elementary

Edna Wardlaw, Akin Secretary

Haden Moore seldom speaks but says a lot.

Mrs. Wardlaw keeps the Akin office in operation.

Mr. Clark seems to always have time to visit with his students.

Jr. High Cheerleaders Clockwise are: Jamie Laney - Mascot, Melody Marshall, Rhonda Weil, Lu Ann Davis - head, Minerva Martinez, and Jamie Atha.

North Elementary Captures Harvest Crown

Kelli Boyd decides to enjoy the crisp afternoon in a garden.

Kelli Boyd, an active fourth grader, was selected Harvest Queen for 1974. The Harvest Queen is selected on the basis of which class raised the most money for the Owl Boosters. This is the second year in a row that North Elementary took the Harvest Festival Crown. Kelli is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boyd.

Akin Elementary was represented by Stacy Shaver. Stacy is a third grader and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shaver, Jr. High was represented by Lenora Castillio, an eighth grader. Lenora is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Castillio.

Stacy Shaver takes time to enjoy the mood the Harvest Festival brings.

Lenora smiles as she presently reigning as Jr. High Princess.

Everybody's Laughing . . .

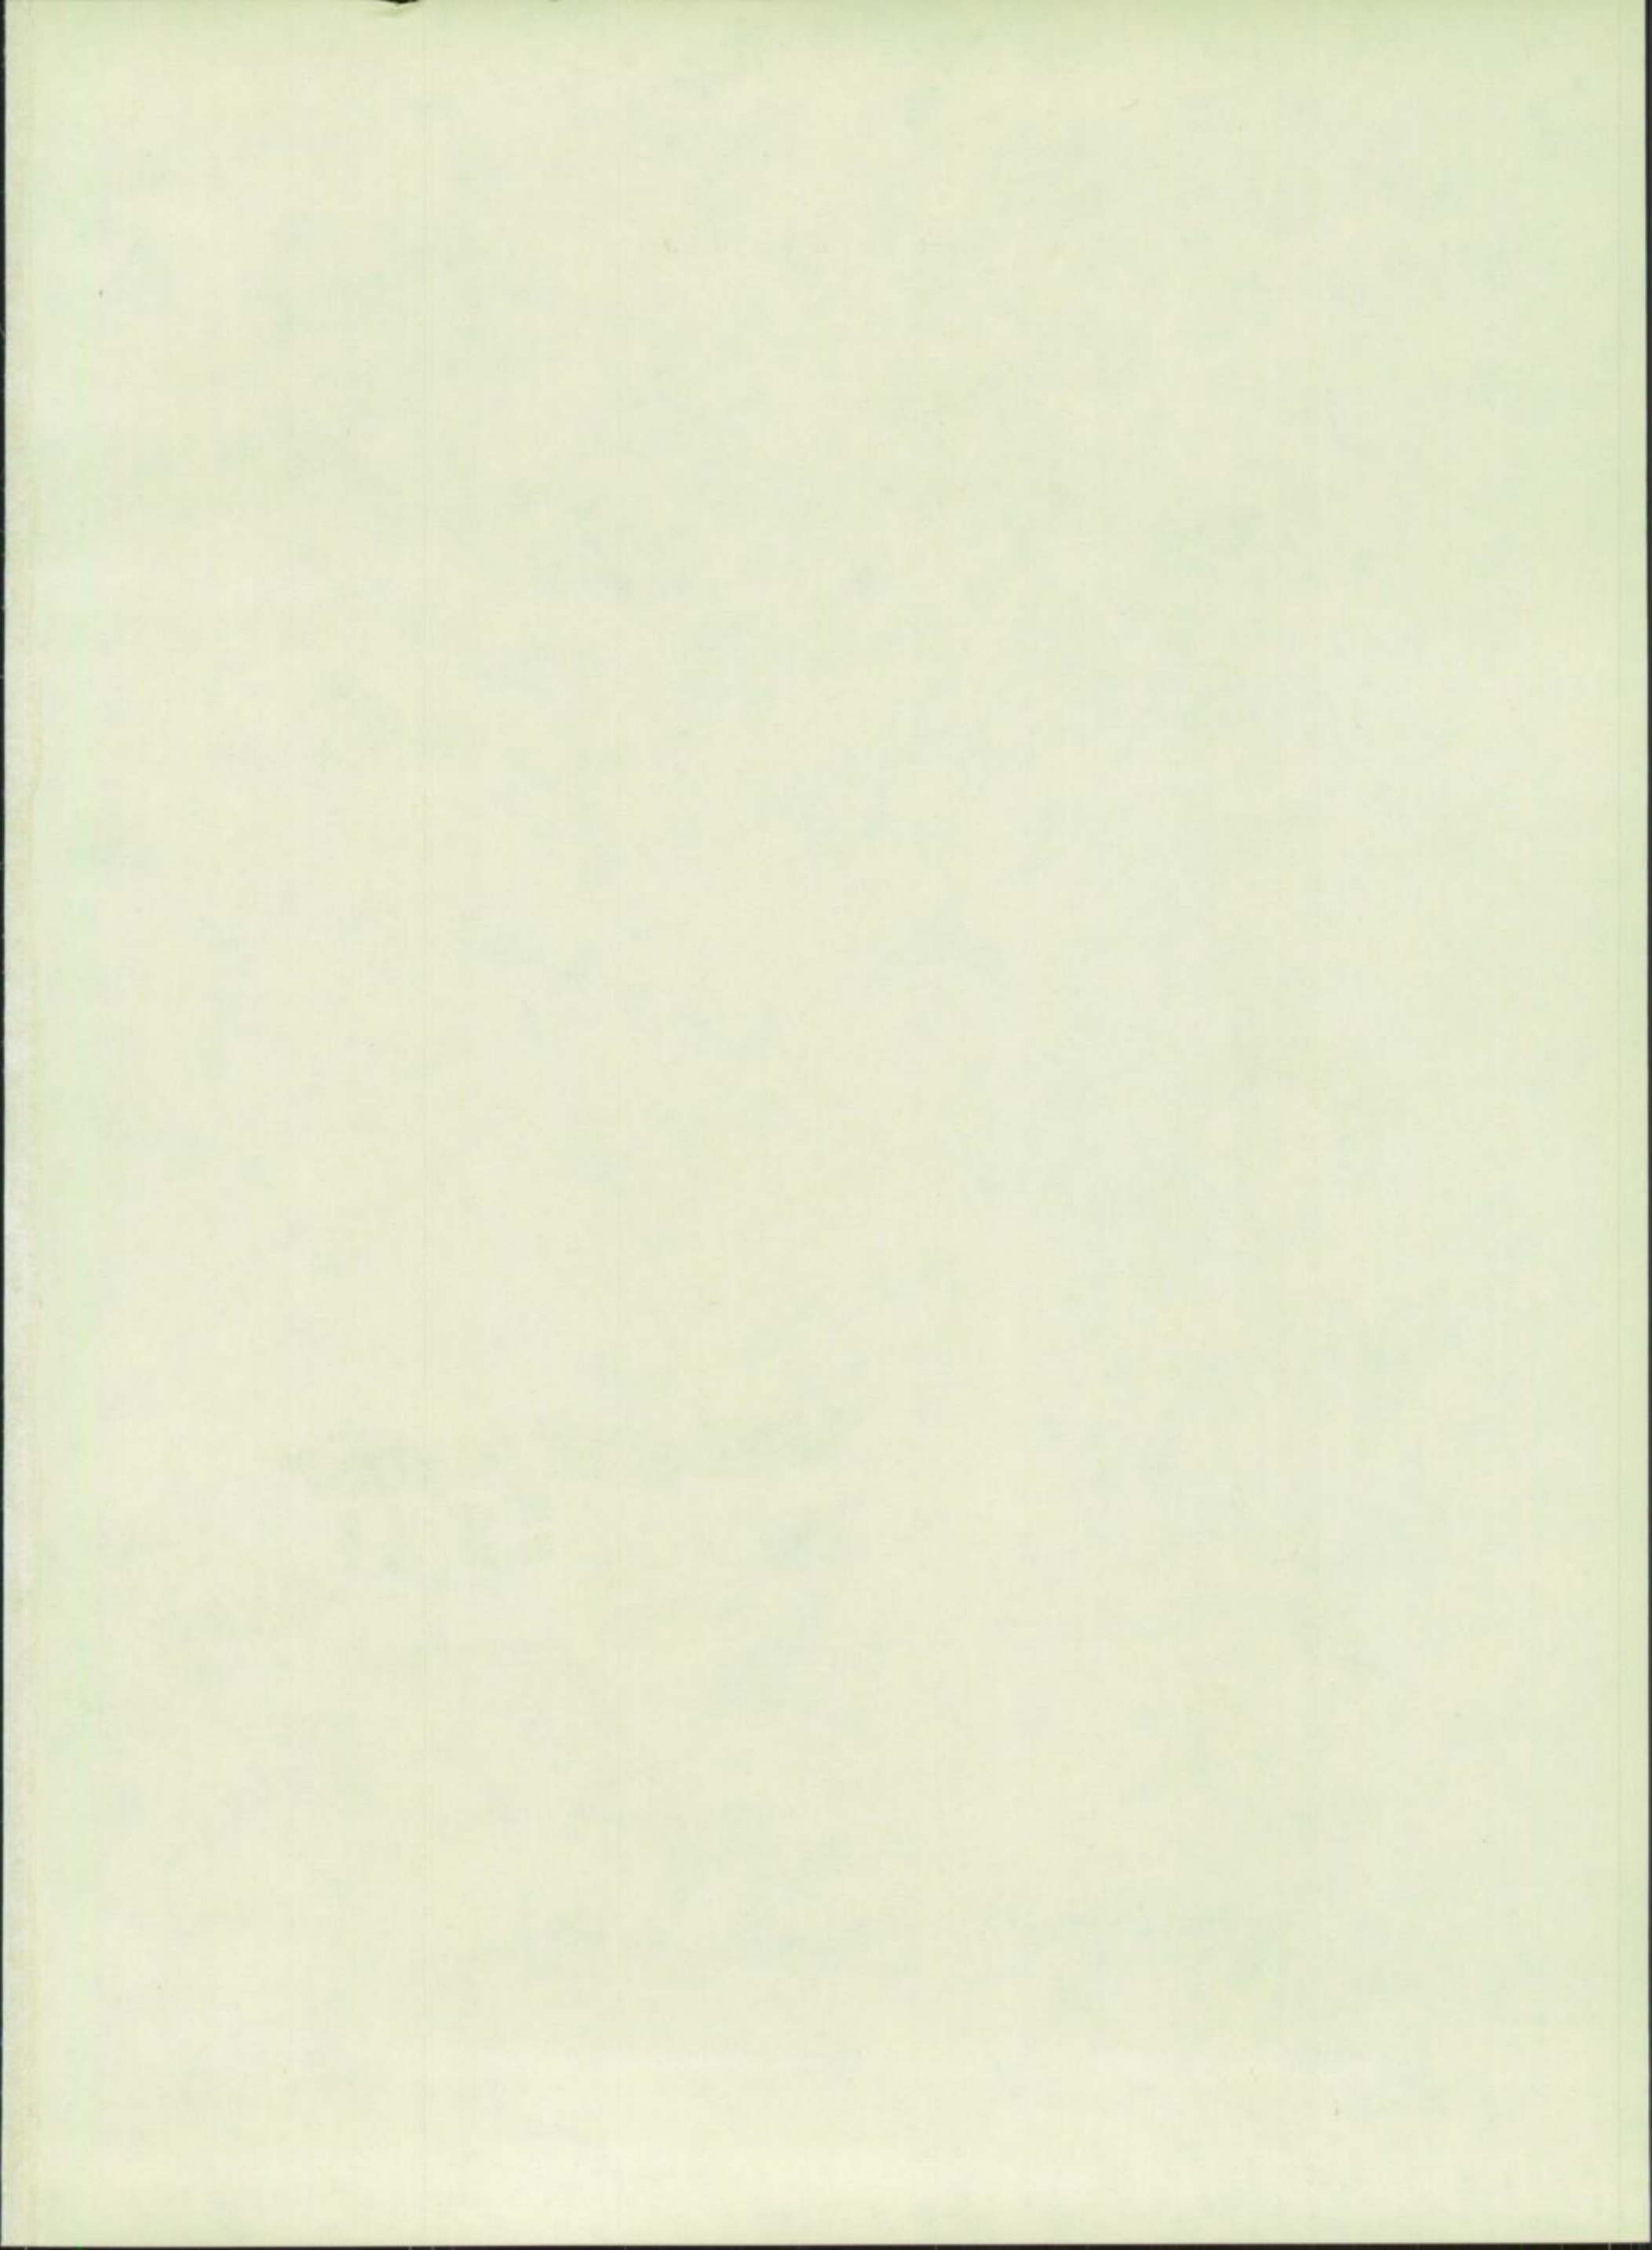

As the year draws to an end, we see what the stress and strain has done to the Governor . . . a sneaky smile before the Student Council elections . . . a questionable smile as to the duties of Josie the plumber . . . an indescribable something-or-other . . . I see happy faces that prove school is no drag . . . a cheerful trio relaxing before school . . . a smiling but serious consultation in the shadows of the hall . . . an interesting but mysterious intruder . . . Everybody's laughing.

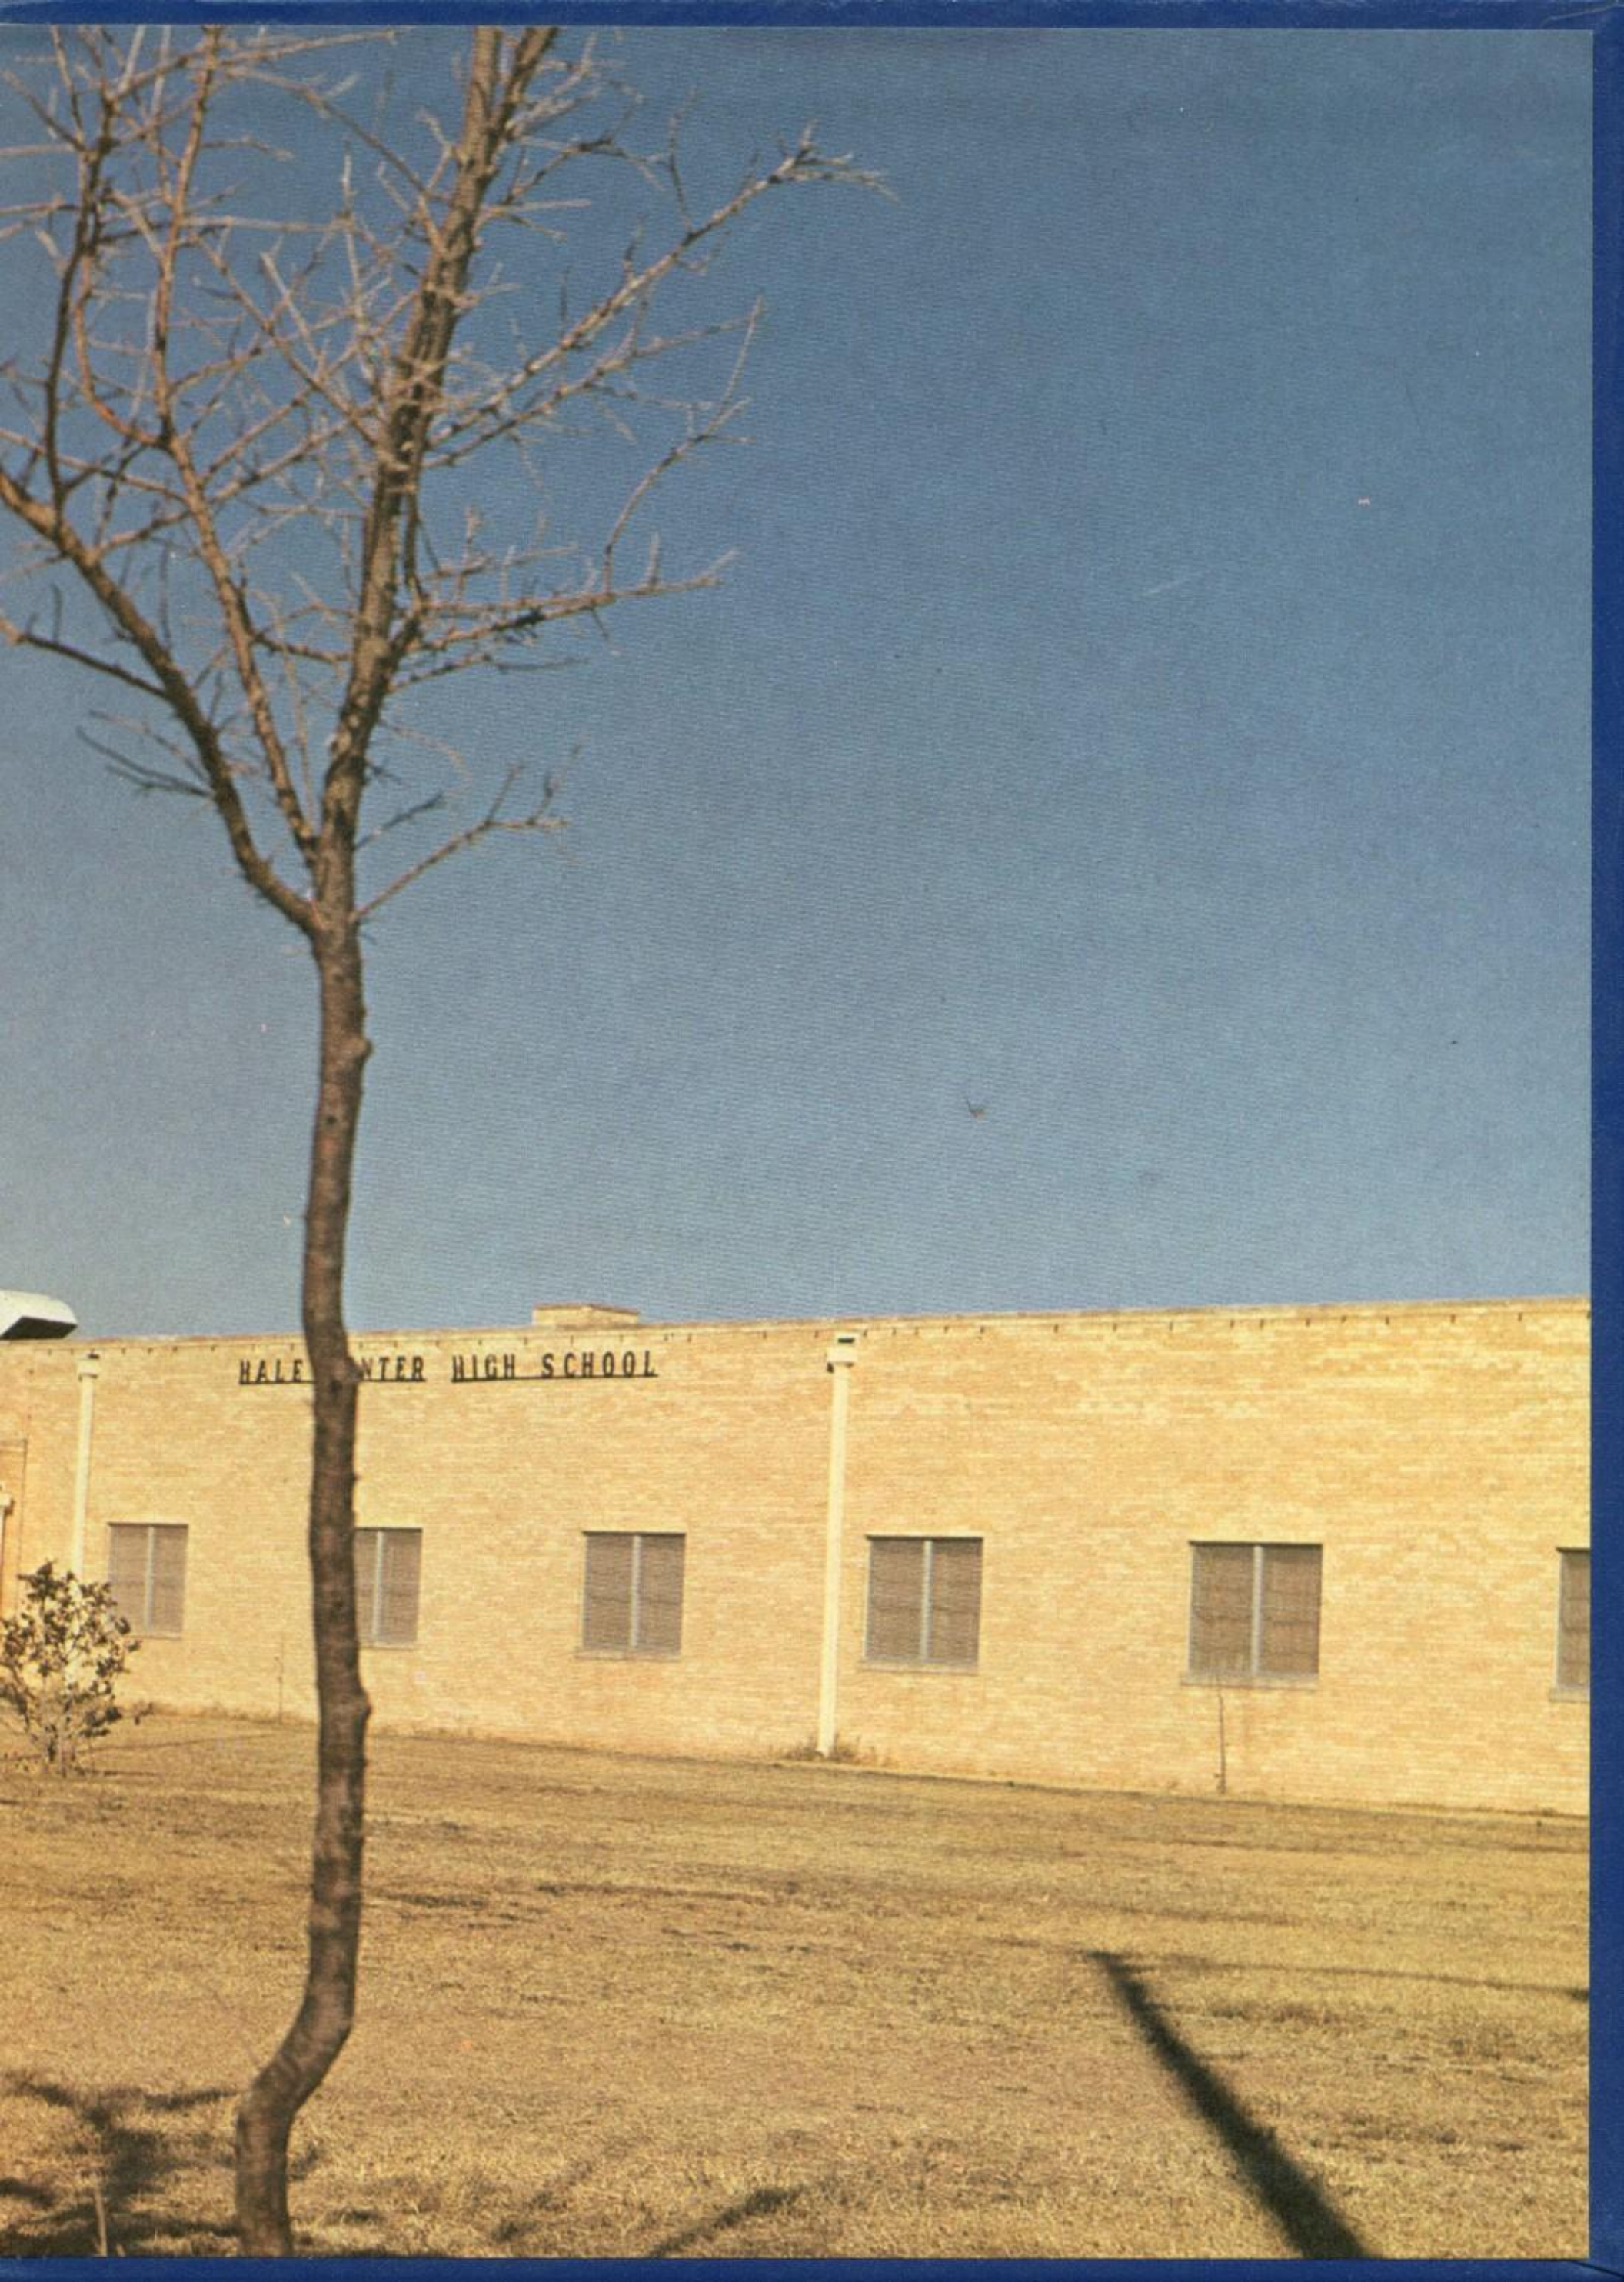

Everybody's Laughing . . .

I see a girl on the senior trip that appears puzzled but has to be having a good time 'cause she's missing school . . . a million dollar smile covered up by a candy wrapper . . . a joyous smile after the last semester test . . . a sigh of relief . . . a sneaky smile directed at some unidentified source . . . The world is blessed with much happiness, and as you can tell, Hale Center High School can account for more than its share.
